WHAT THE DEVIL DOESN'T HAVE

The devil knows all the rules. The devil knows all the Bible verses. He probably knows them better than you do (certainly better than I do).

He knows them so well that here, in today's Gospel, he thinks he can outsmart the Son of God. He thinks he can out-argue Him.

See, the thing you need to know about the devil is that he could have a master's degree in theology. Maybe even a doctorate. But have you ever met a master's student, or even a doctoral one, who doesn't have a particular passion for what they're studying? I sure have.

The devil didn't rebel against God because he didn't understand God's will. He rebelled because he understood God's will perfectly — and he didn't like it.

The devil knows that Jesus is human, and so in today's Gospel he employs all the very best tricks he has for getting humans to break. Physical hunger. Insecurity and a desire for power. The yearning to appear learned and wise.

The devil will try these things with us, too — this Lent, and throughout our lives.

It doesn't work with Jesus, because, of course, Jesus is not just human. He can feel temptation, but He will not submit to it. But how are we supposed to do the same? We're not divine. We're just human.

Well, here's the thing. We may be only human, but as Christians, we have a secret weapon. (No, it's not a master's degree in theology. Some of you may have that, but it probably doesn't make you holier.)

We have a love of what the devil has renounced — those things belonging solely to God. Truth. Joy. Humility. Sanctifying sacrifice.

Let the love of those things carry you through this Lent, and beyond.

- Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

FUELING FOR FINALS HOSTED BY THE NEWMAN SPONSORS

The Newman Sponsors, in collaboration with the Catholic Students Fellowship, are seeking support and/or donations for Fueling for Finals. Finals week is a critical time in which students often neglect their own needs to dedicate more time for their studies. We, as a Newman Center, come together and support our student community by providing snacks, home-made meals, and easy-to-heat items that promote nutritional, mental, and spiritual benefits. You are invited to stop by the Students table to sign up.

OPPORTUNITIES TO RECEIVE THE SACRAMENT OF ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient. When the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God's will, the person be physically healed of illness. But even if there is no physical healing, the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gift of peace and courage to deal with the difficulties that accompany serious illness or the frailty of old age. ~ from the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults

The Newman Center will be offering the Sacrament of Healing on the last Saturday or Sunday of the month. If you or a family member would like to get an anointing, please attend the 11 am Mass on Sunday, April 6, and receive this powerful healing sacrament once the Mass has ended.

YOU ARE CHOSEN TO COLLABORATE WITH THE BODY OF CHRIST!

The Newman Center's unique ministry with students from local colleges makes this particular parish vibrant with diversity, culture, and tradition. Come and experience ministry in exciting new ways—whether it's supporting the college students with financial assistance to go on retreats, providing food security to those who are in need, or by collaborating with the community in parish-wide activities and events.

Currently, the choirs are looking for registered individuals who would like to join. Please speak with a Music Director after the Mass you wish to sing with. Additionally, the Homebound Ministry is still recruiting for members who feel called to served those who are unable to leave their homes by taking the Eucharist to the Homebound. For more information, please contact Sian Ormsby at sianro@att.net.

101 CREATIVE WAYS TO BE GENEROUS

#67 Hug generously. The thing about generosity is that it can be applied to almost everything. Our generosity or lack of generosity is apparent in almost everything we do. We have all given and received generous hugs and stingy hugs. Give someone a generous hug today.

(Excerpt from "The Generosity Habit" by Matthew Kelly.)

"Your own soul is nourished when you are kind; it is destroyed when you are cruel."

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

- First Reading Moses taught the Israelites the importance of remembering the story of their release from Egyptian slavery. This event defined them as a people loved by God. What is the story from your family that has helped define you?
- Second Reading Paul encouraged the Christians in Rome to have a genuine faith in Jesus in both heart and mind. As the season of Lent begins, how might you show others the sincerity of your faith?
- Gospel Reading We hear how Jesus was tempted by the devil as He was preparing to begin his public ministry. What temptation can you confront this Lent?

As priests, deacons, religious, and

Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to Your call.
May our community of faith
support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth.
We ask this through our Lord
Jesus Christ, who

One God for ever and ever.
Amen.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

MISSION STATEMENT

Who we are...
St. Andrew Newman Center is a campus ministry that complements the secular education provided at University of California at Riverside and Riverside Community College. We provide home for the students, members of the university and college communities, and others who choose to join in our mission.

What we do...
Our mission is to strengthen the faith of these groups and develop their gifts so that they may grow into passionate, faithful disciples of Christ, leaders of the Catholic Church.

How we do it...
We are a place of welcome, a worshipping community, a place of generous hospitality, and a resource for those seeking to learn about Scripture, the sacraments and Catholic tradition. We are a place where we reach out to others with love and an informed sense of justice.

For March 2025 we join the Holy Father in praying for:
For families in crisis

Let us pray that broken families might discover the cure for their wounds through forgiveness, rediscovering each other's gifts, even in their differences.

We are grateful to these individuals and businesses that have helped make this bulletin possible through their Sponsorship.
